

---

Modern recently constructed architect designed detached family homes of quality. The properties are built on three levels to an imaginative design to take full advantage of the views offered from this slightly elevated vantage point. The properties were built to the highest possible modern standards with all environmental issues taken into account.

---